The Bernard Trial.

The recent trial of Dr. Simon Bernard, in London, for the alleged offence of aiding and abetting the conspiracy of Orsini and others against the life of the tyrant Louis Napoleon, and the acquittal of Dr. B., have caused well-nigh as much comment and speculation by the press, as did the attempted assassination itself. The trial was a protracted one, and the Prench Government took a deep interest in the result, as it could not fail to indicate, to some extent, the feelings of the British Nation loward their neighbors across the channel.

It is alleged, too, that British aristocraey, hearful of a rupture with France, were saxious for a conviction; but the eloquence and ability of Dr. Bernard's counsel, Edwin James, Esq., and the jury's jealousy of English rights, seem to have proved an overmatch for both domestic apprehension and foreign influence. Mr. James made a mesterly and powerful defence, in which "Napoleon the Little" was held up in all his deformity, to the scorn and execuation of the civilized world.

Dr. Bernard was acquitted. The facts against him were so slight and inconclusive, that it is not probable he would ever have been arraigned merely on their merits; but the French usurper, having, as he flattered himself, obtained an influence with the British sovereign, resolved to make a bold nush for the strengthening of his ill-gotten power, and under cover of this prosecution of Dr. Bernard, to compel the banishment of political exiles who had sought an asylum on the English shore.

The whole thing has proved a failureand justly so. The French despot has been baffied in his designs, and his ministry and organs are not a little chagrined at the result. But, as it does not seem desirable to plunge into open hostilities with England, the French press exhibits a moderate and cantious tone, which may be safely assumed to be in accordance with the line of policy marked out by Louis Nanoleon; for the press in France is well known to be in the most object and slavish subserviency to

It may be well doubted whether both the trial of Bernard and the execution of Orsibi will not recoil upon the miserable tyrant with an injurious effect. The character, services and sacrifices of Orsini in behalf of his down-trodden Italy, are widely extollwith his unhappy fate, while the imperial as sassin is as widely and thoroughly condemn ed. That other and more successful at tempts might be hence inspired to rid the world of a monster, would not be surprise ing. And we need not wonder, if they should not be long delayed.

It is the opinion of observing men that d general war in Europe may be even now brewing, and likely to burst forth at an carly day. Some think this result would be certain to ensue, if Louis Nanateon were suddenly destroyed; but we think it much likelier to be brought about by his direct agency. There is no limit to the folly and villainy of such a monster, except the limit

An Ancient Bitt.—A mee, fresh two dollar bill of the New Haven Bank was put in the contribution box in a church in New Milford, last Sunday. The bill was dated in 1824, and is therefore 34 years old: It is payable at the City Bank in New York, to 1. Street, or bearer, and is signed A. Monson, President, and H. R. Pyuchcon, Cashier. The plate is an old style one, but the bill is fresh and uncrumpled, and has evidently been in circulation. It was doubted whether the bill was good, but though ed whether the bill was good, but though king ago closed its account with the New York City Bank, no doubt it will hence ful-ly its ancient promise. The careful horder of this bill, had he put it out at simple inter-est, would have earned four dollars more with it during the 34 years he has owned it.

A CHURCH BURNER.-Mr. Jacob Wallick, of Millershurg, Holmes county, Ohio, who has for some years been instance on re-ligious subjects, took it into his head, n few ligious subjects, took it into his head, a few weeks ago, that he was commissioned to burn down all the churches. Accordingly, on Thursday last, he proceeded to the Lutherna church, about four miles west of Millersburg, and set it on fire. After staying to see that his work was well done, he proceeded to a Methodist church, situate in the same neighborhood, and set it on fire also. Fortunately, however, the fire was discovered. so. Fortunately, however, the fire was discovered before much damage was done.— Mr. Wallick was arrested, and is now in jail. He is still of the belief that the only salvation for people, is in his getting out

AN ATTEAUTO FRIENDS OF PREE LABOR! LOWELL, MASS., May 13, 1858.

- Mr. Entron :- The laboring classes are adly in need of an advocate, in the form of an obly conducted paper, to defend their rights and elevate and instruct them. This want is more apparent now than ever before, because the laborer is much oppressed by the power of monopoly. This tyranny cannot be well removed unless the laborer can have a widely circulated journal, through which an influence may be brought to bear in favor of justice and liberty: The Spindle City Idea, a fearless defender of the rights of free labor, is published every Wednesday at Lowell, Mass., for this purnose. Every laborer ought to take it, because the angel of justice demands it. Every one can take it, and need not discontinue any other paper, because it is so low-only 50 cents a year; 25 cents for six months, in advance.

Laborera! The benefit to be derived from this paper depends more upon its wide circulation than any other thing .-Your interests demand that you take it. Undoubtedly you will do so, when you consider that by denying yourself of some little luxury a day or two, you will save enough to pay for the " Idea" one year .-Therefore it is hoped that in this way you will aid to defend the principles of liberty. You can address "Editor Spindle City LABORER. Idea," Lowell, Mass.

On Monday, the river Delaware was on fire. The Philadelphia Ledger says—" About 6 o'clock the whole surface of the river opposite Chestnut street was covered, with the densest volumes of smoke. The tremen, with their usual interity, were out, and there is no knowing what they might have done towards extinguishing the Delaware, by pouring streams from the Schuyl-kill into it, had it not been that the experiment of burning the river was a short-lived ment of burning the river was a short-lived one, intended to demonstrate the possibility of the thing, and not to consume it entirely. A Prenchman, named Guilbert, was experimenting with his chemical fire, to show how easily a hostile fleet might be destroyed. He inised a great smoke, considerable fire, and a perfect bub-bub; but as the fleet was not destroyed."

A DECERTION.-A short time since, a commission house in this city received from an Eastern port, a consignment of oil, which was sold to a Philadelphia blacking many acturer. After the oil had been used. the empty barrels were sold to an oil chant on the whark and, in coopering them. one of the lot attracted attention in consequence of its weight, and on knocking out the head, it was discovered that, in addition the head, it was discovered that, in addition to the heads being between two and three inches thick, the barrel contained a heavy yellow pine frame to suit the shape of the barrel, with a narrow opening in the centre, so that the gauger's rod could play back and forth, and thus escape detection. By this means, a cask which should have contained twenty-eight radiums of oil, only held tained twenty-eight gallons of oil, only held from ten to twelve.—Philadelphia Ledger.

NEW YORK, May 13, 1858. MR. POITOR,-The pulses of finance, trade and manufactures do not by any means cease to beat during the present week, but there is just now another and larger licart throbbing in this metropolis, -1 mean the combined spirit of Christian charity and philanthropy exhibited in the forty or fifty various associations, whose anniversaries nre this week in progress. Bi ble, treat, missionary—peace, temperated and freedom-Sunday School, scamen's friend, women's rights—these and not a few other names and aims are included in the vest circle of these philanthropies, most of which, I hope are doing more or less good in the world, as they doubtless originated in generous souls, and have been sustained by liberal hands. Success to all earnest efforts for the promotion of the true and the right, and for the eradication of the false and the wrong!

The brief space to which my letters are restricted would hardly suffice for more than a more commeration of the various societies, with a note of their time and place of meeting, their officers and speakers; and these particulars could of themselves poskess but little interest for many readers. A statement of mere value, would be a general view of the receipts and expenses of the various associations, which can be shortly obtained. The operations of some of the larger ones embrace hundreds of thousands of dollars annually, and their influence encircles the globe. This is an item in the glory of our country, that is ant to be overlooked by gaseous 4th of July orators and other quacks.

A very exciting time was had vesterday at the Tract Society anniversary in Lafayette Place-the practical question being, whether the last year's decision of the Society, to publish Anti Slavery os well as other anti-sin tracts, should or should not be sustained. It will be remembered that the agents of the Society wholly refused to carry out the last your's decision-so potent is the fear of the Slave Power, even here, after a warfare of nearly thirty years against it. The principal Speakers yesterday were Bishop Mellynine of Ohio, Rev. Dr. Tjug of N. Y., Rev. Dr. Bethane of Brooklyn, Judge Jessup of Pa., Rev. Dr. Bacon of New Haven, Rev. Mr. Denison of S. C., Bishop Johns of Baltimore, and Rev. Dr. Asa D. Smith of N. Y. As the Rev. Dr. Adams of Boston, (author of a " Southside View of Stavery,") was finally re-elected one of the publishing committee, the yesterday's proceedings are regarded as favorable to the South, and against the policy last year indicated, by Rev. Dr. Wayland and endorsed by the Society-which, as already stated, the agents of the Society took the responsibility of repridicting. But this will not be likely to prove "the conclusion of the whole matter."

The Methodist brethren have erected, and dedicated on Sunday last, at the corner of 4th Avenue and 22d street, one of ! the finest and costlicst church edifices in the i city. It is called "St. Paul's," cost $130,-000, and will seat fully two thousand peo

It is now quite certain that the two Volunteer Regiments for Utah will not be called into requisition at present, even if Henry Ward Beecher is great at taking up collections. At the old John Street Church, on one occasion, they wanted to make an extra raise. Mr. Beecher elomake an extra raise. Mr. Receiver etoquently addressed the new converts, and tinally asked those who had experienced religion in that church to hold up their right hand. Nearly all the right hands were raised instantaneously up. "Now," says
Mr. Beecher, "put that hand in your pocket when the plate is passed round."

Mr. Receiver eto defive without sauchentic sources, that the reported military strength of the Mormons, and the threats of Brigham Young, are all gammon. It fact, this has been the opintion of the President himself, as indicated by his annual me sage, from the begianing. his annual me sage, from the beginning.-No doubt is entertained but that the reguhar troops now under orders and on the march will be amply sufficient to quell the rebellion and establish the laws in the Territory. One thing is certain-that no rol. unteer troops will pass our Western Irontier until the peace Commissioners are heard from, to the effect that such a movement is necessary. And the Volunteer Appropriation BBI is yet destined to meet with violent opposition in both Houses of Congress. Several members that votes for the Array Bill have had their views changed in regard to the necessity of the additional regiments and will not vote for the cloud regiments and regiments and regiments and regiments and regiments. persons prophecy the defeat of the Bill. At any rate it is no and to give rise to one of the, if not the most animated and interesting discussion of the session.

He fur her states that since the war between the United States and Mexico, the subject of annovation to the United States has been discussed in the Republican Councils of that country, and that he would not be surprised if he lived to see the day when the Mex. ican Legation at Washington should be changed into the Mexican Delegation in Congress. He suggests that a very large portion of the former Republic is now thus represented, a part even by the name of New Mexico, and by a former Mexican citi-

There is a spicy story going the rounds of Washington to the effect that one day last week, a Western office seeker, who has been there a long time, and who has been finally disappointed, called on the President hasily disappointed, called on the President in a rage, and after indulging in some pret-ty sharp language, seized Mr. Buchanan by the collar and shook a brawny fist under his nose! THE DRESS QUESTION .- The proprietors of an opera house in Albany prosecuted for indecency in exhibiting the "Three Graces" in tights, were discharged—the judge holding that people had a right to dress pretty much as they preferred, whether it was in houps and crinoline six feet in diameter, or bloomer costume, or even tights .- Bost.
